C.A.V. JUDGEMENT

1. The matter was called out for hearing in the first round then in the second round and lastly in the third round but none appeared on behalf of the petitioner. So far as the respondents are concerned, in the court four A.G.Ps., namely, Shri H.L. Jani, Shri Mukesh Patel, Shri Samir Dave and Ms. P.S. Parmar are present. All the aforesaid A.G.Ps. have made a statement before this Court that none of them have any instructions in the matter nor the papers of this case, and as such, none of them can appear in this matter.

2. Perused the Special Civil Application. The petitioner, a Circle Inspector of the Collector Office, Mehsana, filed this Special Civil Application before this court and prayer has been made therein to restrain the respondents from reverting the petitioner from the post of Circle Inspector. This Special Civil Application has been admitted by this Court on 29th March, 1984. It was ordered to be heard with Special Civil Application No.625 of 1984 and interim relief against the reversion was granted. Then this interim relief was ordered to be continued. Nothing has been brought on record by the petitioner or the respondents what ultimately happened in this matter after grant of interim relief.

3. The interest of justice will be met in case this Special Civil Application is disposed of in the terms that in case the petitioner is continuing on the post of Circle Inspector on the basis of interim relief granted by this court and the respondents consider that he should be reverted from the post of Circle Inspector then they shall be free to consider the matter afresh. If such a decision is taken then a reasoned order may be made and copy of the same may be sent to the petitioner by registered post. However, the said order should not be given effect to for 15 days from the date of despatch of the said order to the petitioner. This Special Civil Application stands disposed of accordingly in the aforesaid terms. Rule stands disposed of accordingly in the aforesaid terms with no order as to costs
